

You Don't Have to Face the Danger Alone

A retreat designed to honor those who have nourished us with their generosity, ethical conduct, patience, energy, insight, calmness, and wisdom.

Facilitated by Open Door Zen Community co-head students Mickey Joe and Kathryn

When: June 22, 2019 9am to 4pm

Where: Mickey Joe's farm located at 4054 Moe Rd. Black Earth, Wisconsin 53515

Fee: Dana (to be used at discretion of Sangha Council)

Lunch: Potluck. There will a grill/bonfire available.

To Register: Call Mickey Joe at 608 767-3955, and leave your name as well as what you plan to bring to the potluck.

While mostly silent this retreat will have time to write and reflect. There will be a ceremonial offering to honor those who have come before us, who have helped us in some way on our journeys, many of whom are no longer in our presence. There will also be a ceremony for those names on our retreat remembrance table at the Spring Retreat.

May you know that absence is alive with hidden presence, that nothing is ever lost or forgotten.
